PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY

No. 84 ] NEW DELHI, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1957

MINISTRY OF FINANCE

(Department of Economic Affairs)

NOTIFICATION

New Delhi, the 21st February 1957

S.R.O. 576.—In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 30 of the Securities Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1956 (42 of 1956), the Central Government hereby makes the following rules, the same having been previously published as required by sub-section (3) of the said Section, namely:—

1. Short title.—These rules may be called the Securities Contracts (Regulation) Rules, 1957.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires—

(a) "Form" means a form appended to these rules;

(b) "the Act" means the Securities Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1956 (42 of 1956);

(c) "Government company" means a company in which not less than fiftyone per cent. of the share capital is held by the Central Government or by any State Government or Governments or partly by the Central Government and partly by one or more State Governments.

3. Application for recognition.—An application under Section 3 of the Act for recognition of a stock exchange shall be made to the Central Government in Form A.

4. Fees for application.—(1) There shall be paid in respect of every application under rule (3) a fee of rupees five hundred.

(2) The amount of the fee shall be deposited in the nearest Government treasury or the nearest branch of the State Bank of India:

Provided that at Bombay, Calcutta, Madras, Delhi and Kanpur, the amount shall be deposited in the Reserve Bank of India.

(3) The amount of the fee so deposited shall be credited to the Receipt-head "XLVI—Miscellaneous—other fees, fines & forfeitures".

5. Documents to be filed along with the application and particulars it should contain.—Every application shall be accompanied by four copies of the rules (including the memorandum and articles of association where the applicant stock exchange is an incorporated body) and bye-laws of the stock exchange applying for recognition as specified in section 3 of the Act and the receipt granted by the Government treasury, or as the case may be, the State Bank of India or the Reserve Bank of India, in respect of the amount of the free deposited and shall contain clear particulars as to the matters specified in the annexure to Form A.

6. Form of recognition.—The recognition granted to a stock exchange shall be in Form B and be subject to the following conditions, namely:—

- (a) that the recognition unless granted on a permanent basis, shall be for such period not less than one year as may be specified in the recognition;
- (b) that the stock exchange shall comply with such conditions as are or may be prescribed or imposed under the provisions of the Act and these rules from time to time.

7. Renewal of recognition.—(1) Three months before the expiry of the period of recognition, a recognised stock exchange desirous of renewal of such recognition may make an application to the Central Government in Form A.

(2) The provisions of rule 3, rule 4, rule 5 and rule 6 shall apply in relation to renewal of recognition as they apply in relation to grant of recognition except that the fee payable in respect of an application for renewal of recognition shall be rupees two hundred.

8. Qualifications for membership of a recognised stock exchange.—The rules relating to admission of members of a stock exchange seeking recognition shall inter alia provide that:—

(1) No person shall be eligible to be elected as a member if—

- (a) he is less than twentyone years of age;
- (b) he is not a citizen of India; provided that the governing body may in suitable cases relax this condition with the prior approval of the Central Government;
- (c) he has been adjudged bankrupt or a receiving order in bankruptcy has been made against him or he has been proved to be insolvent even though he has obtained his final discharge;
- (d) he has compounded with his creditors unless he has paid sixteen annas in the rupee;
- (e) he has been convicted of an offence involving fraud or dishonesty;
- (f) he is engaged as principal or employee in any business other than that of securities except as a broker or agent not involving any personal financial liability unless he undertakes on admission to sever his connection with such business;

Provided that the Central Government may, for reasons sufficient in the opinion of the said Government, permit a recognised stock exchange to suspend the enforcement of this clause for a specified period on condition that the applicant is not associated with or is a member of or subscriber to or shareholder or debenture holder in or connected through a partner or employee with any other organisation, institution, association, company or corporation in India where forward business of any kind whether in goods or commodities or otherwise is carried on or is not engaged as a principal or employee in any such business.

- (g) he is associated with or is a member of or subscriber to or shareholder or debenture-holder in or connected through a partner or employee with any other organisation, institution, association, company or corporation in India where dealings in securities are carried on or he is a director, partner, or employee of a company whose principal business is that of dealing in securities unless he undertakes on admission to sever such association or connection;
- (h) he has been at any time expelled or declared a defaulter by any other stock exchange;
- (i) he has been previously refused admission to membership unless a period of one year has elapsed since the date of such rejection.

(2) No person eligible for admission as a member under sub-rule (1) shall be admitted as a member unless:—

- (a) he has worked for not less than two years as a partner with, or as an authorised assistant or authorised clerk or remisier or apprentice to, a member; or,
- (b) he agrees to work for a minimum period of two years as a partner or representative member with another member and to enter into bargains on the floor of the stock exchange not in his own name but in the name of such other member; or,
- (c) he succeeds to the established business of a deceased or retiring member who is his father, uncle, brother or any other person who is, in the opinion of the governing body, a close relative;

Provided that the rules of the stock exchange may authorise the governing body to waive compliance with any of the foregoing conditions if the person seeking admission is in respect of means, position, integrity, knowledge and experience of business in securities, considered by the governing body to be otherwise qualified for membership.

(3) No person who is a member at the time of application for recognition or subsequently admitted as a member shall continue as such if—

- (a) he ceases to be a citizen of India;

Provided that nothing herein shall effect those who are not citizens of India but who were members at the time of such application or were admitted subsequently under the provisions of clause (b) of sub-rule (1) of this rule, subject to their complying with all other requirements of this rule;

- (b) he is adjudged bankrupt or a receiving order in bankruptcy is made against him or he is proved to be insolvent;
- (c) he is convicted of an offence involving fraud or dishonesty;
- (d) he becomes associated with or a member of or subscriber to or shareholder or debentureholder in or connected through a partner or employee with any other organisation, institution, association, company or corporation in India where dealings in securities are carried on;

Provided that those members who were entitled under the rules in force prior to such application to associate themselves as such, shall be allowed a period of two years from the date of the grant of recognition for complying with the provisions of this clause;

- (e) he becomes a director, partner or employee of a company whose principal business is that of dealing in securities;

Provided that, in the case of those members who were permitted under the rules in force prior to such application to act as such, a period of one year from the date of the grant of recognition shall be allowed for severing any such connection;

- (f) he engages either as principal or employee in any business other than that of securities except as a broker or agent not involving any personal financial liability, provided that—

- (i) the governing body may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, permit a member to engage himself as principal or employee in any such business, if the member in question ceases to carry on business on the stock exchange either as an individual or as a partner in a firm;

- (ii) in the case of those members who were under the rules in force at the time of such application permitted to engage in any such business and were actually so engaged on the date of such application, a period of 3 years from the date of the grant of recognition shall be allowed for severing their connection with any such business;

(iii) nothing herein shall affect members of a recognised stock exchange, permitted under the proviso to clause (f) of sub-rule (1) to suspend the enforcement of the aforesaid clause, for so long as such suspension is effective, except that no member of such exchange shall engage in forward business of any kind whether in goods or commodities or otherwise and, if actually so engaged on the date of such application, he shall sever his connection with any such business within a period of three years from the date of the grant of recognition.

(4) A "company" as defined in the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956) shall not be eligible to be elected as a member or, if already working as such at the time of application for recognition, to continue to do so for a period exceeding two years from the date of the grant of recognition.

(5) Where any member of a stock exchange is a firm, the provisions of sub-rules (1), (3) and (4) shall, so far as they can, apply to the admission or continuation of any partner in such firm.

9. Contracts between members of recognised stock exchange.—All contracts between the members of a recognised stock exchange shall be confirmed in writing and shall be enforced in accordance with the rules and bye-laws of the stock exchange of which they are members.

10. Government nominees on the governing bodies of recognised stock exchanges.—The Central Government may nominate one or more persons not exceeding three in number, as member or members of the governing body of every recognised stock exchange. Such member or members shall enjoy the same status and powers as other members of the governing body.

11. Obligation of the governing body to take disciplinary action against a member if so directed by the Central Government.—After receiving the report of the result of an enquiry made under clause (b) of sub-section (3) of section 6 of the Act, the Central Government may take such action as they deem proper and, in particular, may direct the governing body of the stock exchange to take such disciplinary action against the offending member, including fine, expulsion, suspension or any other penalty of a like nature not involving the payment of money, as may be specified by the Central Government; notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the rules or bye-laws of the stock exchange concerned, the governing body shall give effect to the directions of the Central Government in this behalf and shall not in any manner commute, revoke or modify the action taken in pursuance of such directions, without the prior approval of the Central Government. The Central Government may, however, either of its own motion or on the representation of the member concerned, modify or withdraw its direction to the governing body.

12. Audit of accounts of members.—Every member shall get his accounts audited by a chartered accountant whenever such audit is required by the Central Government.

13. Withdrawal of recognition.—The written notice referred to in section 5 of the Act shall be in Form C.

14. Books of account and other documents to be maintained and preserved by every recognised stock exchange.—Every recognised stock exchange shall maintain and preserve the following books of account and documents for a period of five years.

(1) Minute books of the meetings of:

- (a) members;
- (b) governing body;
- (c) any standing committee or committees of the governing body or of the general body of members.

(2) Register of members showing their full names and addresses.

Where any member of the stock exchange is a firm, full names and addresses of all partners shall be shown.

- (a) Register of transactions (Sauda book).
- (b) Clients' Ledger.
- (c) General Ledger.
- (d) Journals.
- (e) Cash Book.
- (f) Bank Pass-book.
- (g) Documents Register showing full particulars of shares and securities received and delivered.

(2) Every member of a recognised stock exchange shall maintain and preserve the following documents for a period of two years:—

- (a) Members' contract books showing details of all contracts entered into by him with other members of the same exchange or counter-foils or duplicates of memos of confirmation issued to such other members.
- (b) Counter-foils or duplicates of contract notes issued to clients.
- (c) Written consent of clients in respect of contracts entered into as principals.

16. Manner of inquiry in relation to the affairs of the governing body of a recognised stock exchange or the affairs of any member of the stock exchange in relation to the stock exchange.—(1) (a) The person or persons appointed by the Central Government to make an inquiry under clause (b) of sub-section (3) of Section 6 of the Act shall hereafter in this rule be referred to as the 'inquiring authority';

(b) where the inquiring authority consists of two or more persons, one of them shall be appointed as the chairman or senior member thereof;

(c) the inquiring authority shall hand over a statement of issues to be inquired into to the governing body or the member concerned, as the case may be, who will be given a reasonable opportunity to state their or his side of the case;

(d) if any witness is called for examination, an opportunity shall be provided to the governing body or the member whose affairs are being inquired into, as the case may be, to cross-examine such witness;

(e) where the inquiring authority consists of more than one person, the views of the majority shall be deemed to represent the findings of such authority and, in the event of an equality of votes, the chairman or senior member shall have a casting vote;

(f) the inquiring authority shall submit its report in writing to the Central Government within the period specified in the order of appointment;

(g) temporary absence from any hearing or hearings of any member of the inquiring authority shall not vitiate its proceedings.

(2) Where the Central Government has directed the governing body of a stock exchange to make an inquiry under clause (b) of sub-section (3) of section 6 of the Act, the governing body concerned shall appoint one or more members thereof to make the inquiry and the provisions of sub-rule (1) shall apply mutatis mutandis to such inquiry.

17. Submission of annual report.—(1) Every recognised stock exchange shall, within one month of the date of the holding of its general meeting, furnish the Central Government annually with a report about its activities during the preceding year, which shall inter alia contain detailed information about the following matters:—

- (a) changes in rules and bye-laws, if any;
- (b) changes in the composition of the governing body;
- (c) any new sub-committees set up and changes in the composition of existing ones;
- (d) admissions, re-admissions, deaths or resignations of members;
- (e) disciplinary action against members;
- (f) arbitration of disputes (nature and number) between members and non-members;
- (g) defaults;
- (h) action taken to combat any emergency in trade;
- (i) securities listed and de-listed; and
- (j) securities brought on or removed from the forward list.

(2) Every such report shall be accompanied by an audited balance sheet and profit and loss account.

18. Manner of publication of bye-laws for criticism.—The bye-laws to be made, amended or revised under the Act shall be published for criticism in accordance with the provisions of Section 23 of the General Clauses Act, 1897 both in the Gazette of India and Official Gazette of the State in which the principal office of the recognised stock exchange is situate.

19. Requirements with respect to the listing of securities on a recognised stock exchange.—(1) A public company as defined under the Companies Act, 1956, desirous of getting its securities listed on a recognised stock exchange, shall apply for the purpose to the stock exchange and forward along with its application the following documents and particulars:—

- (a) Memorandum and Articles of Association and, in the case of a debenture issue, a copy of the trust deed;
- (b) Copies of all prospectuses or statements in lieu of prospectuses issued by the company at any time;
- (c) Copies of offers for sale and circulars or advertisements offering any securities for subscription or sale during the last five years;
- (d) Copies of balance sheets and audited accounts for the last five years, or in the case of new companies, for such shorter period for which accounts have been made up;
- (e) A statement showing:—
  - (i) dividends and cash bonuses, if any, paid during the last ten years (or such shorter period as the company has been in existence, whether as a private or public company).
  - (ii) dividends or interest in arrears, if any.
- (f) Certified copies of agreements or other documents relating to arrangements with or between:—
  - (i) vendors and/ or promoters.
  - (ii) underwriters and sub-underwriters.
  - (iii) brokers and sub-brokers.
- (g) Certified copies of agreements with:—
  - (i) managing agents and secretaries and treasurers.
  - (ii) selling agents.
  - (iii) managing directors and technical directors.
  - (iv) general manager, sales manager, manager or secretary.

- (h) Certified copy of every letter, report, balance sheet, valuation, contract, court order or other document, part of which is reproduced or referred to in any prospectus, offer for sale, circular or advertisement offering securities for subscription or sale, during the last five years.
- (i) A statement containing particulars of the dates of, and parties to, all material contracts, agreements (including agreements for technical advice and collaboration), concessions and similar other documents (except those entered into in the ordinary course of business carried on or intended to be carried on by the company) together with a brief description of the terms, subject-matter and general nature of the documents.
- (j) A brief history of the company since its incorporation giving details of its activities including any reorganisation, reconstruction or amalgamation, changes in its capital structure (authorised, issued and subscribed) and debenture borrowings, if any.
- (k) Particulars of shares and debentures issued (i) for consideration other than cash, whether in whole or part (ii) at a premium or discount or (iii) in pursuance of an option.
- (l) A statement containing particulars of any commission, brokerage, discount or other special terms including an option for the issue of any kind of the securities granted to any person.
- (m) Certified copies of
  - (i) letters of consent of the Controller of Capital Issues.
  - (ii) agreements, if any, with the Industrial Finance Corporation, Industrial Credit and Investment Corporation and similar bodies.
- (n) Particulars of shares forfeited.
- (o) A list of highest ten holders of each class or kind of securities of the company as on the date of application along with particulars as to the number of shares or debentures held by and the address of each such holder.
- (p) Particulars of shares or debentures for which permission to deal is applied for:

Provided that a recognised stock exchange may either generally by its bye-laws or in any particular case call for such further particulars or documents as it deems proper.

(2) Apart from complying with such other terms and conditions as may be laid down by a recognised stock exchange, an applicant company shall satisfy the stock exchange that :

(a) Its articles of association provide for the following among others:—

- (i) that the company shall use a common form of transfer;
- (ii) that the fully paid shares will be free from all lien, while in the case of partly paid shares, the company's lien, if any, will be restricted to moneys called or payable at a fixed time in respect of such shares;
- (iii) that any amount paid up in advance of calls on any share may carry interest but shall not entitle the holder of the share to participate in respect thereof, in a dividend subsequently declared;
- (iv) there will be no forfeiture of unclaimed dividends before the claim becomes barred by law;
- (v) that option or right to call of shares shall not be given to any person except with the sanction of the company in general meeting,

Provided that a recognised stock exchange may provisionally admit to dealings the securities of a company which undertakes to amend its articles of association at its next general meeting so as to fulfil the foregoing requirements and agrees to act in the meantime strictly in accordance with the provisions of this clause.

- (b) At least forty-nine per cent of each class or kind of securities issued by the company was offered to the public for subscription through advertisement in newspapers for a period not less than three days and that applications received in pursuance of such offer were allotted fairly and unconditionally;

Provided that a recognised stock exchange may relax this requirement with the previous approval of the Central Government on satisfactory evidence being produced by the company concerned that the securities sought to be listed are not unduly concentrated in a few hands.

Explanation.—Where any part of the securities sought to be listed have been or are agreed to be taken up by the Central Government, a State Government, or a Government Company or any other organisation that may be notified in this respect by the Central Government in the Official Gazette, the reference to forty-nine per cent. of the securities to be offered to the public shall be construed to mean forty-nine per cent. of the issue available after setting aside any securities so taken up or agreed to be taken up.

(3) A company applying for listing shall, as a condition precedent, undertake inter alia.

- (a) (i) that letters of allotment will be issued simultaneously and that, in the event of its being impossible to issue letters of regret at the same time, a notice to that effect will be inserted in the press so that it will appear on the morning after the letters of allotment have been posted;
  - (ii) that letters of right will be issued simultaneously;
  - (iii) that letters of allotment, acceptance or rights will be serially numbered, printed on good quality paper and examined and signed by a responsible officer of the company and that whenever possible, they will contain the distinctive numbers of the securities to which they relate;
  - (iv) that letters of allotment and renounceable letters of right will contain a proviso for splitting and that, when so required by the Exchange, the form of renunciation will be printed on the back of or attached to the letters of allotment and letters of right;
  - (v) that letters of allotment and letters of right will state how the next payment of interest or dividend on the securities will be calculated
- (b) to issue, when so required, receipts for all securities deposited with it whether for registration, sub-division, exchange or for other purposes;
- (c) when documents are lodged for sub-division or consolidation through the Clearing House of the Exchange:
- (i) to accept the discharge of an official of the stock exchange clearing house on the company's split receipts and consolidation receipts as good and sufficient discharge without insisting on the discharge of the registered holders; and
  - (ii) to verify when the company is unable to issue certificates or split receipt or consolidation receipts immediately on lodgment whether the discharge of the registered holders, on the documents lodged for sub-division or consolidation and their signatures on the relative transfers are in order;
- (d) on production of the necessary documents by shareholders or by members of the exchange, to make on transfers an endorsement to the effect that the power of attorney or probate or letters of administration or death certificate or certificate of the Controller of Estate Duty or similar other document has been duly exhibited to and registered by the company;
- (e) to issue certificates in respect of shares or debentures lodged for transfer within a period of one month of the date of lodgement of transfer and to issue balance certificates within the same period where the transfer is accompanied by a larger certificate;

- (f) to advise the stock exchange of the date of the Board Meeting at which the declaration or recommendation of a dividend will be considered;
- (g) to advise the stock exchange in writing of all dividends and/or cash bonuses recommended or declared immediately after a meeting of the Board of the company has been held to finalise the same;
- (h) to notify the stock exchange of any material change in the general character or nature of the company's business;
- (i) to notify the stock exchange of any change:
  - (i) in the company's directorate by death, resignation, removal or otherwise.
  - (ii) of managing director, managing agent or secretaries and treasurers.
  - (iii) of auditors appointed to audit the books and accounts of the Company;
- (j) to forward to the stock exchange copies of statutory and annual reports and audited accounts as soon as issued, including Directors' report;
- (k) to forward to the stock exchange as soon as they are issued, copies of all other notices and circulars sent to the shareholders including proceedings of ordinary and extraordinary general meetings of the company and to file with the stock exchange certified copies of resolutions of the company as soon as such resolutions become effective;
- (l) to notify the stock exchange prior to intimating the shareholders of any new issue of securities whether by way of right, privilege, bonus or otherwise and the manner in which it is proposed to offer or allot the same;
- (m) to notify the stock exchange in the event of re-issue of any forfeited securities or the issue of securities held in reserve for future issue;
- (n) to notify the stock exchange of any other alteration of capital including calls;
- (o) to give notice to the stock exchange as many days in advance as the exchange may from time to time reasonably prescribe, stating the dates of closure of its Transfer Books (or, when the Transfer Books are not to be closed, the date fixed for taking a record of its shareholders or debenture-holders) and specifying the purpose or purposes for which the Transfer Books are to be closed (or the record is to be taken);
- (p) to forward to the stock exchange an annual return immediately after each annual general meeting of at least ten principal holders of each class of security of the company along with particulars as to the number of shares or debentures held by, and address of, each such holder;
- (q) to grant to shareholders the right of renunciation in all cases of issue of rights, privileges and benefits and to allow them reasonable time within which to record, exercise, or renounce such rights, privileges and benefits;
- (r) to promptly notify the stock exchange:
  - (i) of any action which will result in the redemption, cancellation or retirement in whole or in part of any securities listed on the exchange;
  - (ii) of the intention to make a drawing of such securities, intimating at the same time the date of the drawing and the period of the closing of the Transfer Books (or the date of the striking of the balance) for the drawing;
  - (iii) of the amount of securities outstanding after any drawing has been made;
- (s) to intimate the stock exchange any other information necessary to enable the shareholders to appraise the position of the company and to avoid the establishment of a false market in the shares of the company;

- (t) that in the event of the application for listing being granted, such listing shall be subject to the rules and bye-laws of the exchange in force from time to time and that the company will comply within a reasonable time, with such further listing requirements as may be promulgated by the exchange as a general condition for new listings.

(4) A fresh application for listing will be necessary in respect of all new issues desired to be dealt in, provided that, where such new securities are identical in all respects with those already listed, admission to dealings will be granted on the company intimating to the stock exchange particulars of such new issues.

Explanation.—Shares are indetical in all respect only if:

- (a) they are of the same nominal value and the same amount per share has been called up;
- (b) they are entitled to dividend at the same rate and for the same period, so that at the next ensuing distribution, the dividend payable on each share will amount to exactly the same sum, net and gross; and
- (c) they carry the same rights in all other respects.

(5) A recognised stock exchange may suspend or withdraw admission to dealings in the securities of a company or body corporate either for a breach of or non-compliance with, any of the conditions of admission to dealings or for any other reason, to be recorded in writing, which in the opinion of the stock exchange justifies such action;

Provided, however, that no such action shall be taken by a stock exchange without affording to the company or body corporate concerned a reasonable opportunity by a notice in writing, stating the reasons, to show cause against the proposed action:

Provided further that where a recognised stock exchange has withdrawn admission to dealings in any security, or where suspension of admission to dealings has continued for a period exceeding three months, the company or body corporate concerned may appeal to the Central Government and the Central Government may, after giving the stock exchange an opportunity of being heard, vary or set aside the decision of the stock exchange and thereupon the orders of the Central Government shall be carried out by the stock exchange.

(6) A recognised stock exchange may, either at its own discretion or shall in accordance with the orders of the Central Government under sub-rule (5) restore or readmit to dealings any securities suspended or withdrawn from the list.

(7) The Central Government may, at its own discretion or on the recommendation of a recognised stock exchange, waive or relax the strict enforcement of any or all of the requirements with respect to listing prescribed by these rules.
